Thank you for responding so quickly. I will not need you that early on monday. Possibly late afternoon or first thing tuesday assuming all goes well. I will have a victim/witness advocate contact you as soon as possible on monday to alert you to the schedule. Thank you.

ADA Jenkins-

I'm writing to let you know that I received the summons for the [REDACTED] et al case scheduled for Monday, November 30 and that I am available. However, I am curious if you are actually going to need me at 8:30 on Monday, or if it will be later in the day or possibly even on Tuesday as I am aware that jury selection and getting through the police witnesses can take a while. Since I've got other cases scheduled throughout all of next week, I am just trying to keep them informed of my availability as well. So if there could be a set time that you will need me, or even if I can be on call, that would be great (it would take me about an hour to an hour and 15 minutes once I received the call to get into the courthouse in Springfield, depending on the time of day). Please keep me informed of what is going on with the case - I can be reached at 413-545-2607 or feel free to email me. Thank you in advance.

Respectfully,
